Transition Planning Meeting

What is it?

This is a meeting where you and your family can talk with people, like your Personal Adviser and teacher, about what you want to do at school and what you want to do when you leave.

Who could be invited to this meeting?

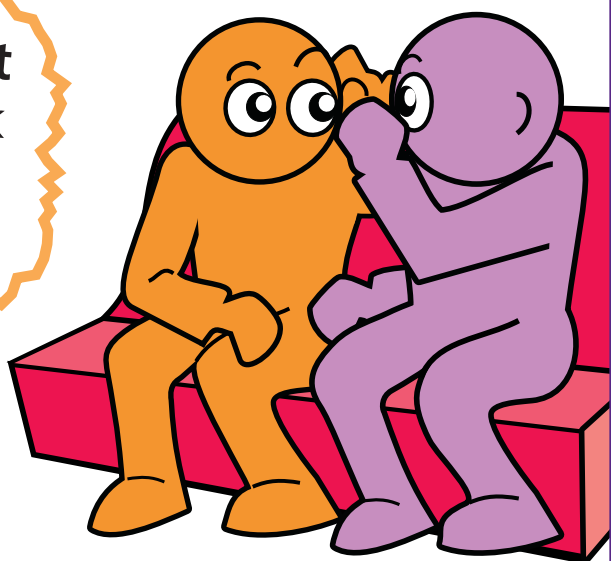

How can I tell people more about my plans?

Talk to people about what your choices are. Ask someone like your parent, carer, teacher or Connexions Personal Adviser.

Think about what you want to say. If you are not sure, ask someone to help you decide how you will say it.

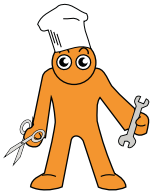

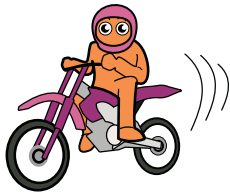

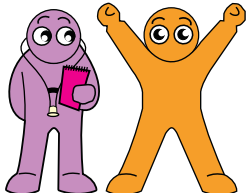

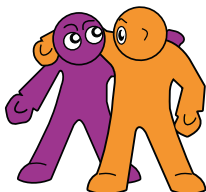

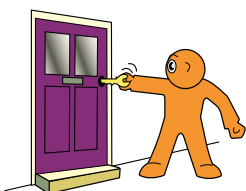

Bring a list of questions you want to ask before the meeting.

How will you get your views across? Do you need someone to help you with this?

It is important to let people know if there is something you really want.

Other things you could think about...

Things to think about	What do you think?
Where would I like to learn after I'm 16?
What other support might I need?
What work would I like to do when I leave education?
Will I need help with travel?
Will I need health care?
Will I need personal care?
Where would I like to live when I am an adult?

Here you can put information about people who will be working with you. Make more copies of this page you need to...
